– WELLNESS WORKSHOPS, GROUPS, & SUPPORT–

CAPS International Student Wellness Group – Tuesdays from 3:00pm – 4:00pm

Location: Asian American Cultural Center (49 Joyce Kilmer Ave., Livingston Campus)

The CAPS International Student Wellness Group is a confidential, safe virtual space designed to support international students in navigating unique challenges like cross-cultural adjustment. It provides a supportive environment to discuss concerns, share experiences, and connect with peers and meets every Tuesday, starting on February 24. Please call 848-932-7884 with any questions.

CAPS Counseling Conversations & Wellness/Therapy Groups

Visit the website for more information and schedules for all Let's Talk sessions and to learn more about individual CAPS Community Based Counselors (look for "Community Based-Counselor"). The CAPS website also lists the various available workshops and group descriptions. To get connected with any of these groups, please call 848-932-7884.

Uwill: FREE Immediate-Access to Teletherapy

Uwill provides free immediate access to teletherapy through an easy-to-use, private, secure, confidential, online platform. Choose a therapist based on your preferences, including issue, gender, language, and ethnicity. Select a time that fits your schedule, including day, night, and weekend availability. Register and book your first session using your Rutgers email.

Graduate Student Wellness Coaching – Ongoing Make an appointment with a wellness coach!

A wellness coach helps you focus on your present situation and provides general assistance to develop strategies that will improve various aspects of your life. The idea is that you are the expert on your own life, and the coach is there to assist you with putting a plan in place to help you reach your goals. Our coaches are not counselors or therapists. Think of a goal you want to achieve, e.g., managing your time, setting boundaries, and then submit the form. As a graduate student, you will receive a coach who is a professional staff member, not a peer.

Personal Training with Rutgers Recreation

Location: Various Locations

Ready to reach your fitness goals? Rutgers Recreation's certified personal trainers are here to guide you every step of the way—whether you're just starting out or looking to take your workouts to the next level. Choose from one-on-one or partner sessions at a time and location that fits your schedule. Our trainers will design a personalized program to help you build strength, confidence, and consistency. For more info: <https://go.rutgers.edu/f25rurecpt>.

– ACADEMIC SUPPORT & WORKSHOPS –

Lit Review 101 (Graduate Workshop Series) – Thursday, March 5, 12:00pm – 1:00pm

Location: Virtual

Registration required by March 4!

Join the Rutgers Learning Centers for this workshop that will go over strategies for how to write a literature review. This workshop will discuss topics such as the purposes of a literature review, an overview of the research and writing process, as well as structure and formatting.

Assessment: Why and How to Use Gradescope – Friday, March 6, 12:00pm – 1:00pm

Location: Virtual

Registration required by March 5!

This workshop is an introduction to Gradescope, a grading tool that integrates in Canvas and can help you grade exams and assignments more efficiently and with more consistency across students and graders. It supports rubrics, facilitates feedback, and generates statistics, all within any course modality. This session is open to the Rutgers community and counts toward the Teaching with Technology certificate program for graduate students and postdocs.

How Learning Happens – Tuesday, March 10, 12:00pm – 1:00pm

Location: Virtual

Registration required by March 9!

What motivates students to invest effort, stay engaged, and take ownership of their learning? Join us to discuss how learning happens for students and how we as instructors can help support that process! This session, grounded in the science of learning, explores how prior knowledge shapes new understanding, how learners organize and retain information, and how instructors can help their students stay motivated and engaged in learning. Participants will be invited to share their own classroom experiences and discuss practical strategies for helping students strengthen metacognitive skills and become more self-directed learners. This session is part of the Improving Your Classroom Skills certificate program for graduate students and postdocs.

Building Graduate Level Research Writing Skills, Part 2: The Revision Process – Wednesday March 11, 7:00pm – 8:00pm

Location: Virtual

Registration required by March 10!

This is the second of a two-part workshop which will provide graduate students with an organized approach to revising and proofreading their research papers. Attendees will be given strategies to help them improve the clarity, coherence, and organization of their content. Detailed tips on copy editing and proofreading will also be covered, so students have the necessary tools to review their own writing for accuracy before submission. Students can attend both parts of the workshop or either one, depending on their needs.

Graduate Writing Accountability Group Sessions – Mondays and Thursdays, 11:00am – 1:00pm (except 3/16 and 3/19)

Registration required for each session!

Need some structure and motivation with working on your projects and assignments? Join a Graduate Writing Accountability Session hosted by the Graduate Writing

Program and the Learning Centers! Using the Pomodoro method as a structure, these facilitated sessions will provide a supportive atmosphere where graduate students can sit together on Zoom and write alongside other graduate students to make progress toward their goals.

Graduate Academic Coaching at the Learning Centers

Academic Coaches at the Learning Centers are available to provide one-on-one academic coaching to graduate students, partnering with them to develop the personalized study strategies, time management habits, and self-management skills necessary to navigate university rigor and achieve academic success.

Ben Pereira is the Learning Centers' Graduate Peer Coach. Ben is a PhD candidate in Communication, an international student who comes with experience as a Graduate Mentor Fellow in the Honors College, supporting students in academic planning, project development, and long-term goal-setting. Ben is available to provide support and educational resources to assist you in your graduate academic journey. Together, Ben will work with you towards your goals and make your experience a fulfilling one. Make a one-on-one appointment with Ben or one of our Graduate Academic Coaches today! For any questions about Graduate Academic Coaching or Graduate Student Services at the Learning Centers, email Dr. Wilson Ng at wwn2@echo.rutgers.edu.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT, FUNDING, & EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

– PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT –

Research Café: Showcasing Graduate Voices and Scholarship

Research Café brings together the entire graduate student community of Rutgers University-New Brunswick/Piscataway campus to strengthen scholarly literacy and interdisciplinary research communication by providing a platform for emerging researchers to connect, share their in-progress research or scholarship, and benefit from peer feedback in a friendly and low-stakes setting. Research Café fosters interdisciplinary communication, public speaking confidence, and constructive peer engagement while directly contributing to students' professional development and research communication skills... critical competencies valued both within and beyond academia. Research Café helps students practice translating complex ideas for varied audiences, network across fields, and build a stronger sense of scholarly community, all in a welcoming, low-stakes environment. GradFund Workshop Series – Navigating the Hidden Curriculum of Graduate School as a Foundation to Winning Fellowships and Grants

This Spring Semester, GradFund invites you to join a small group workshop series focused on navigating the hidden curriculum of graduate school—the unspoken knowledge, norms, and strategies essential for success in graduate school but rarely taught in formal coursework. Based on A Field Guide to Grad School: Uncovering the Hidden Curriculum by Jessica Calarco, each session highlights a different chapter and topic. Participation in this series will lay the foundation for writing competitive fellowship and grant applications, while complementing GradFund’s Self-Paced Guide to Fellowships and Grants on Canvas and individual advising appointments.

Facilitated by the GradFund advising team, each interactive session includes: a focused presentation on the week’s topic; guided group discussion; and development of a personalized action plan. Participants will build confidence, expand their professional knowledge, and strengthen their capacity to apply for external funding.

Space is limited. Early registration is required and reflects a commitment to attend and actively participate in all sessions.

March 2026 Workshop Schedule (All sessions take place on Thursdays, 1:00–2:00 PM (ET) via Zoom.)

March 5 – Talking about Your Research

March 12 – Balancing Teaching, Research, Service, and Life

March 19 – No session, Spring Break
